CUPID COLLECTION

The Roman god of desire, love and affection, Cupid possesses qualities of masculinity, seduction and romance. Robust, strong and durable in its form, the Cupid Collection will offer a fierce and glamorous aesthetic to any interior space.

The result; an overall masculine and seductive aesthetic.

CUPID BED

Casa Botelho's signature glamour and sensual design can now be incorporated into your bedroom aesthetic with the Cupid Bed, a key piece in the brand's Boutique Hotel Concept. Grand in its structure and seductive in its appearance, the Cupid Bed will most certainly be the centerpiece of your bedroom space. Cleverly contrasting matt and shine, the Cupid Bed has a textured, wooden frame, with integrated bedside tables that are topped in luxurious Marblo, as well as a wrap-around headboard upholstered in stunning, high quality suede and velvet. Convert your bedroom into a glamorous, Art Deco-inspired setting that will play the perfect part in creating a romantic and sensual space.

CUPID CREDENZA

As a God of desire, love and affection, Cupid was said to possess various seductive traits that made him irresistible to those that laid eyes on him. While designing the Cupid Collection, Joao Botelho aimed to infuse these characteristics into each piece, crafting sharp lines and a robust frame to show strength, and sumptuous textures to seduce the eye. The Cupid Credenza is an extraordinary piece of furniture, made from Walnut and wrapped in sensual Nova-suede; and complemented by luxurious brass accents from Buster and Punch, the Cupid Credenza will look just as good in a bedroom or living space as it would perched in a hallway or home office.

POWERFUL

Casa Botelho's Cupid Collection has become a beautiful representation of strength and seduction, inspired by the Roman God of Desire. Pairing a strong and sturdy frame with a unique blend of materials and textures, Cupid oozes glamour and offers an addictively sumptuous aesthetic.

A TREASURE CHEST

The Cupid Wardrobe continues these principles, made from a combination of Black American Walnut, textured Novasuede, and adorned with brass accessories from Buster and Punch. LED sensor lights and custom-designed trays for your accessories, make Cupid more than just a wardrobe; it's a treasure chest.
